Parco Naturale Alpi Marittime

Attribution : Balma Meris (Archivio APAM)

The Balma Meris alpine inn is a refuge-hotel set in a recently renovated stone building.

The refuge is located in the center of the town of Sant'Anna, a typically mountain resort, gathered along the river at the confluence of the Meris valley, the starting point for excursions in the valley of the same name.

Description

The Locanda Alpina Balma Meris is located in the center of the Marittime Alps Park and Nature Reserve and is the ideal starting point (or arrival) for the trekking of the Kings: Livio Bianco Hut, Valasco Hut, Remondino Hut, Genova Hut, Ellena Hut Soria, Pagari refuge, Gandolfo bivouac. Other less demanding routes allow you to explore and appreciate the botanical and faunal variety of the Park, such as Lou Viol di Tait, a route that allows you to still see the roofs made with rye bundles, or the wolf sighting route. A stay at the Locanda Alpina Balma Meris is a natural experience with few comparisons in Europe.
