

Rifugio Lorenzo Bozano

Parco Naturale Alpi Marittime

Attribution : Reguge Bozzano (Augusto Rivelli)

The refuge is dedicated to Lorenzo Bozano, first secretary and vice president for 18 years, finally president of the Ligurian section of the CAI, from 1904 to 1913.

Pioneer and promoter of Genoese mountaineering, he was one of the founders of the Academic Alpine Club.

Useful information

Category : Mountain Hut

Description

The Lorenzo Bozano refuge is a refuge located in the municipality of Valdieri (CN), in the Gesso valley, in the Maritime Alps, at 2453 m a.s.l. It is located within the Maritime Alps Natural Park.

It rises at the foot of the southern wall of Corno Stella in the upper Argentera valley, in the municipality of Valdieri (CN).

it is the ideal starting point for mountaineers and free climbers, who can choose from a hundred routes between 200 and 800 meters in altitude, not to mention climbing on low structures (1 or 2 pitches) or on the boulders around the refuge.

It is also an excellent destination for hikers, being in the heart of the Maritime Alps natural park.

Geographical location

All useful information

Practical info

Capacity: 34 beds

Open: June 15 to September 30

Other periods on reservation

Winter refuge: 8 places

For more information, consult the website of the CAI (Italian Alpine Club) Piedmont

Contact

Informazioni e Prenotazione

Gestore: Marco Quaglia

Alto Vallone Argentera Valdieri (CN)

Tel. (+39) 0171 97 351

Cell. (+39) 328 35 67 556

rifugiobozano@yahoo.it

<http://rifugiobozano.it/>